CHAPTER XXXII
Code of Conduct

Section 1.

Purpose- This chapter shall set forth a standard for Senate meetings and the conduct that is needed in order to have a meeting.

Section 2.

Meetings shall be run by the Executive Vice President (EVP) person who uses Robert’s Rules in order to run the meeting as efficiently as possible. There is an understanding among the sixteen (16) Senators and the ten (10) Officers that represent the undergraduate populous that a certain conduct must be in place at all times. If a senate member is not able to conduct himself in a manner that is respectable and professional during a senate meeting the Chair may excuse this person from the meeting, thus preventing this person from participating in any functions and votes that may take place that night.

Section 3.

Qualifications-

(a) A member that does not follow this bylaw is one that either attempts to harm another individual during the Senate meeting.

(b) A Senate member that use foul language to attack another Senate member during the meeting.

(c) A member that doesn’t acknowledge the EVP’s right to hold order and chooses to ignore the Chair’s plea for order.

Section 4.

No vote is necessary for the suspension of a senate member and will fall under the right of EVP discretion, at no time may another Senate member call upon the Code of Conduct, this bylaw is to only be used by the member who is Chairing the meeting. If at any case a member of Senate is suspended more than two (2) times during the academic year, the Act of Censure will automatically occur.
