CHAPTER XXIV
Eligibility Standards

Section 1. Because ASUCR recognizes the necessity of its representatives to fulfill their duties and responsibilities as students, as well as the obligations of their offices, the following legislation shall be enacted.

Section 2. All members of the Executive, Legislative and Judicial branches, as well as their appointed representatives, shall be required to maintain a minimum of full time status (12 units) during the period in which they are serving in office (Summer Quarter excluded).

Section 3. All members of the Executive, Legislative and Judicial branches, as well as their appointed representatives, shall be required to maintain a minimum of 2.0 GPA in their major and overall for the quarter immediately preceding the one in which they are serving (Summer Quarter excluded), as well as cumulative.

A. Withdrawal from the quarter, regardless of when the withdrawal occurs, results in a GPA below the minimum required 2.0 GPA, even if the overall quarter GPA would have been above a 2.0 GPA.

B. Members in only credit/no credit (S/NC) courses shall not receive more than one NC in order to meet the required academic standards. Any members receiving more than one NC shall be considered ineligible.

Section 4. In the case of noncompliance with Sections 2 and 3 of this bylaw, an Automatic Leave shall be invoked for elected and appointed officers.

A. Automatic Leave is defined by duties and pay immediately ceasing upon ineligibility.

Section 5.

A. If any elected member is determined ineligible based on the provision set forth in this bylaw, they must go on Automatic Leave. They shall be forbidden from exercising the duties and privileges of their position, including voting, and shall have their stipend withheld for the quarter in which they are on Automatic Leave.

   a. In the case of an elected member meeting eligibility requirements in the next quarter they shall resume their duties and be removed from Automatic Leave.
      i. When a senator is on Automatic Leave, the Executive Vice President will contact the alternate to temporarily fulfill their duties.
      ii. The alternate will serve until the Senator is off of Automatic Leave.
   b. When an executive cabinet officer is on Automatic Leave, the Executive Vice President shall contact the alternate to temporarily fulfill their duties.
i. The alternate shall serve until the executive cabinet officer is off of Automatic Leave.

ii. The President shall be exempted from the aforementioned procedure as prescribed in Section 5, Subsection A, Line a (ii), and the ASUCR Line of Succession bylaw (Chapter XXV), shall be enacted until the President is no longer on Automatic Leave.

c. When a director is on Automatic Leave, the Executive Vice President shall contact the alternate to temporarily fulfill their duties.

   i. Any appointed director(s) shall be replaced with the procedures prescribed in Section 5, Subsection B of this chapter.

B. In the event that an appointed member is in noncompliance with the provisions of Sections 2 or 3 of these bylaws, they will be removed from their position. The appointing officer can waive these requirements once per academic year.

Section 6. Under special circumstances, to be determined by the Judicial Council, a waiver to the eligibility requirements in Sections 2 and 3 of this bylaw may be granted once per academic year, per representative by a majority vote of the Judicial Council when quorum is present.
